Students not only learn the elements of grammar, but how to use them correctly when writing research papers, essays, or when speaking. Literature lessons are devoted to classical writings of all times. Each English class uses the library to do research work, or reading of personal interest.

Experimentation and Research

The Science Department of Park View offers courses in general science, biology, and chemistry.

General science is a review of the earth sciences, physical sciences and biological sciences. It serves to give students a basic knowledge with which to continue studying more advanced science.

Biology, often referred to as "the science of life," deals particularly with the fundamental characteristics of plants and animals. It does not explain life, but investigations in biology bring the students to a closer understanding of all living things.

Chemistry deals with the manner in which matter is constructed, and the ways in which it can be broken down and recombined. It has become apparent that chemistry holds the key to the life sciences.

An understanding of the basic concepts in the sciences helps us to recognize and appreciate the orderliness in nature.

Mrs. Watson helps her students work on their six-week's projects.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Watson, many hopeful young artists receive their first introduction to the fundamentals of art.

During their first year, the students work with free hand sketches, pastels, water colors, ceramics, pen and ink, and with this they further develop their skills toward advanced creative work.

Many of the students from Park View have gained recognition for their work outside of school, as well as in the display of their work in the art room, trophy cases, and on the various bulletin boards in the halls.

As much creativity, as possible, is encouraged by Mrs. Watson. In this way, the students gain a greater appreciation for art and its beauty.

Our school could not function without the school cafeteria staff or without an efficiently run office.

The cafeteria staff prepares wholesome, well-balanced meals which can be served in a minimum of time. Mrs. Mae Mewborn is our cafeteria manager.

The school secretary, always with a cheerful smile, is Mrs. Jill Walthall. She is typist, errand girl, banker, bookkeeper, telephone operator, school "nurse", and yet manages to find time to lend a helping hand to anyone who desires it.

Second Row: John Clark, Charles Clary, Steve Upton, Donny Turner, David Shelton, Wayne Jones, and Mr. Lumpkin.

Time For

Friends

Even with the heavy demands upon students in the classroom, the students continue to find time to spend happy friendly moments with each other. These moments are the beginnings of lifelong acquaintances.

Senior Class Elects Crowder President

The Senior Class Officers are Spencer Crowder, president; Johnny Hightower, vice-president; Brenda Martin, secretary; R. L. Bonney, treasurer; and Frankie Cleaton, reporter.

As the Class of 1966 marched down the aisle on their graduation night, they realized that their days of being a student at Park View were over.

Many students brought honor to their school as they participated in extra-curricular activities, such as cheerleading, sports, band and chorus. Other students brought honor as they won beauty titles, district awards, and some were elected to various offices of honor in the school. Eleven students were placed in the Top Ten of the Class because of their high scholastic and academic records.

The money-making project of the class was the presentation of the annual senior play, entitled "Girl Crazy." Members of the class enjoyed attending the Junior-Senior Prom, which was given to them by the Junior class.

The last occasion for the class to be together informally was the annual senior picnic, held at Pine Lake before the graduation exercises.

In Memoriam

Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendor in the grass, or glory in the flower;
We will grieve not, rather find
Strength in what remains behind;
In the primal sympathy
Which having been must ever be;
In the soothing thoughts that spring
Out of human suffering;
In the faith that looks through death.

-Wordsworth

Officers of the Junior Class are Pat Wise, president; Nita Montague, vice-president; Nancy Miller, secretary; Joyce Pegram, treasurer; Ashby Armistead, reporter.

With overwhelming spirits and worried minds, the class of 1967 launched its fourth year of high school life. For everyone the year was filled with challenges, changes, happiness, and heartaches.

Juniors participated in varsity sports, cheerleading, forensics, students government campaigns, studies, and served as delegates to Girls' and Boys' States. They learned for the first time about College Boards, early applications to colleges, and information about job placement. As the year drew to a close, they made plans for the gala festivity of the Junior-Senior Prom. Athletically, socially, and academically the Juniors proved to be a strong link in the pattern of excellence at Park View.

Students Use Time Wisely

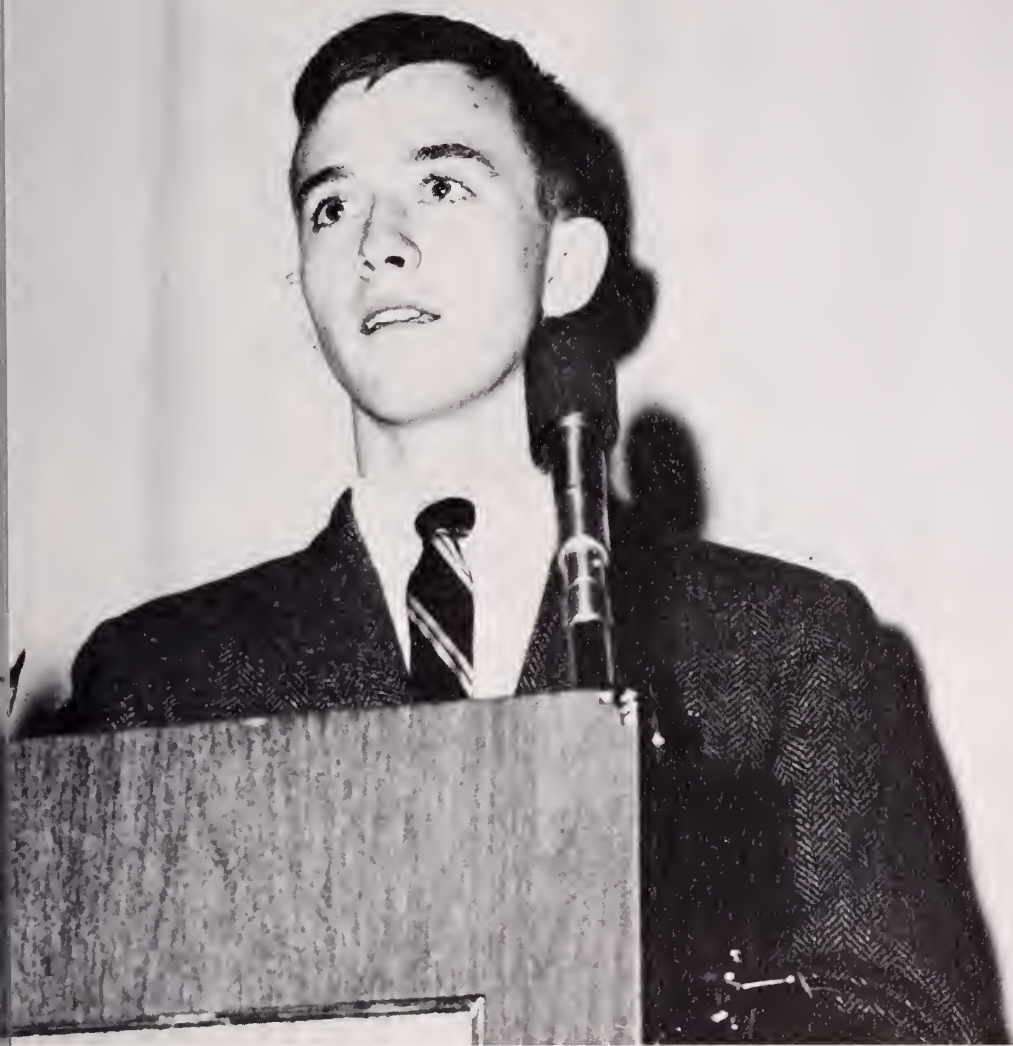

Hall monitor, Pleas Johnson, checks Spencer Crowder's corridor pass.

Each club must take an active part in the service necessary to make Park View a workable community. Our clubs realize this and strive to serve the school whenever possible. The clubs that are most appreciated by the students and the student body are those which render the best services. Park View itself is pushed ever forward by students who serve it and work to help it progress.

Time

For Participation

Officers of S.C.A. are: SEATED: Martha Kimball, secretary; Linda Montgomery, reporter; STANDING: James Poythress, vice-president; Wilson Thompson, president; C. W. Gee, treasurer.

Each student at Park View is a member of the Student Cooperative Association. The Student Council is composed of representatives, elected by each class, and the S.C.A. officers, who are elected by the entire student body. These representatives help to promote a working relationship between the students and the faculty. They encourage participation in all school functions, work to keep Park View clean and neat, and strive to develop good sportsmanship and school spirit in all school activities.

S.C.A. members attend and participate in various S.C.A. meetings on district and state levels.

Some of the S.C.A. projects this year included the operation of the school store, the organization of a monitor system, the sale of personalized chocolate candy, and Park View shirts.

Throughout the year, local artists are invited to give lectures and displays of their work.

Yearbook Staffs Work Diligently

As the time grew shorter, members of the editorial staff rushed to complete work on the 1966 yearbook. There did not seem to be enough fifth periods, and Room 16 was the scene of many afternoon sessions.

In the spring, delegates were chosen to attend the SIPA Convention held at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia. There they learned the procedures and techniques needed for yearbook publication.

Although writing and editing copy, identifying pictures, and hunting frantically for a photographer occupied much of their time, lively chatter and laughter were often heard as the staff worked on the annual.

Co-editors Janice Chapman and Charlotte Oakley prepare plans for this year's Leaves of Memory.

The Editorial Staff includes the following: SEATED: Martha Blair Kimball, Johnny Hightower, Mrs. Wells, Betsy Atkins, Wilson Thompson. FIRST ROW: Janice Chapman, C. C. Nuckols, Nita Montague, Carol Evans,

To finance a yearbook is a big job. But the business staff, headed by business managers, Susan Hankley, and Spencer Crowder, tackled this responsibility with enthusiasm and spirit.

The subscription campaign was initiated by a "Miss Yearbook" contest to create interest in the yearbook. Members of the business staff were also assigned to sell ads to the business firms in the surrounding communities.

Their job is completed only when the annuals arrive and have been distributed to the students.

Forensics Meet at Longwood College and Mike Harper, Girl's and Boy's Prose Reading; Susan Puryear and Frankie Malone, Girl's and Boy's Poetry Reading; Susan Hankley and Ronnie Bell, Girl's and Boy's Public Speaking; Brenda Perkins, spelling. mobile. These stickers serve as a reminder to the students and the community to drive carefully.

Some members of the Safety Club participated in the annual driving rodeo during the Spring. Some were presented with safe driving trophies and prizes donated by various businesses in the community.

Time To

Play

Enthusiasm may take many different forms, but it must be present, not only in sports, but in all school-sponsored activities as well. Enthusiasm and school spirit are the forces which dissolve all bonds of pride and prejudice and unites all classes to one cause--Park View. It gives encouragement to a tired ball player and makes him go on to victory. Enthusiasm is the quality that enables the students at Park View not only to do the job, but to do it well.

Along with the hot heat of August came many hours of hard work and perspiration for thirty boys. This was the opening of training for the hopeful 1965 Dragon team. They had a lot to live up to and a lot to learn. But there was one thing they did not lack, spirit--a spirit that enabled them to post a 6-4 season under Coach Harold Wise.

Park View mixed an aggressive offense with a strong defense, and began with a fast start by defeating Blackstone. The "Green Dragons" lost the next one to Victoria, but bounced back to defeat Amelia. After a heartbreaking loss to Bluestone in the rain, the Dragons defeated Chatham 13-0 in their Homecoming game. They defeated their next three opponents only to lose their last two games.

✓ Ashby Armistead (80) makes a dazzling catch of a pass from Wilson Thompson (25) to set up the first Dragon touchdown in the Homecoming game with Chatham.

The award is to be presented to the Senior girl considered by her teammates to be the most valuable player of the year. The team gave this honor to their Senior captain, Brenda Martin.

Dragons Play Golf and Baseball

Golfing brothers Topper and Chipper Watson watch Topper's drive on the seventh hole during a match at Kenbridge.

The Dragon golf team for the 1966 season was organized under the leadership of Coach Harold Wise. The squad members were Billy Dix, Larry Dix, Chipper Watson, and Topper Watson. These "swinging amateurs" of Park View practiced by themselves most of the time. These boys had a quite successful season playing four matches, and placing first in one, second in two, and third in one.

Dragons Experience Rebuilding Year

The Park View baseball team compiled a 4-9 record. With the loss of all but two starters from last year's strong team, the Dragons were plagued with inexperience. After losing six straight road games, the Dragons returned home to capture three out of five.

Their finest game was against District Champion Dinwiddie. The strong Dinwiddie team, which had won eighteen games in a row, was handed its only defeat by the Dragons.

Although it was a somewhat disappointing year, with experience under their belts, the Dragons should be stronger next spring.

Captains for the Dragons were Frankie Cleaton, Johnny Hightower, and Wilson Thompson. Wilson also represented the Dragons on the All-District team.

Long Practices and Hard

The Varsity cheerleaders mix a magic brew before each game. Their secret ingredients are school spirit and pep.

The Varsity cheering squad include: KNEELING: Nancy Brown; Betty Jean Estes, Co-captain; Betsy Atkins. STANDING: Ann King, Pat Parker, Linda Rainey, Charlotte Oakley, co-captain; Nancy Miller, Rose Creedle, and Betty Smiley.

The Varsity Cheerleaders are chosen in the spring by former cheerleaders, faculty members, and the varsity athletic captains. They practice with great enthusiasm in preparation for the football and basketball seasons. In addition to cheering they aided the pep committee in making banners for the halls, and held rallies in which various skits were performed. They also served at the annual football banquet and participated in the Harvest Festival Parade.

In August, five of these girls attended cheerleader camp where they learned new cheers and received ideas to boost spirit at the games.

The varsity cheerleaders were co-captained by Charlotte Oakley and Betty Jean Estes. Their sponsor is Mrs. Estelle Lumpkin.

Work Go Into Cheerleading

The Junior Varsity cheerleading squad is composed of ten spirited and enthusiastic girls from the eighth and ninth grades.

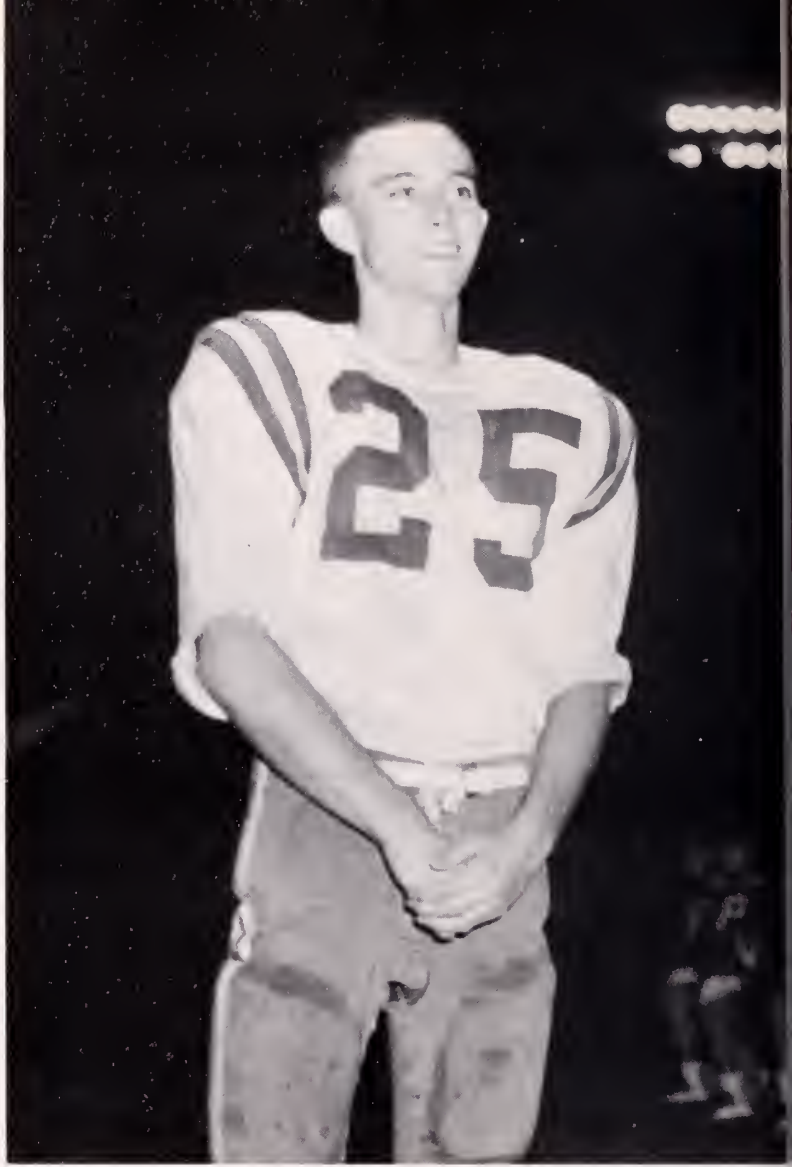

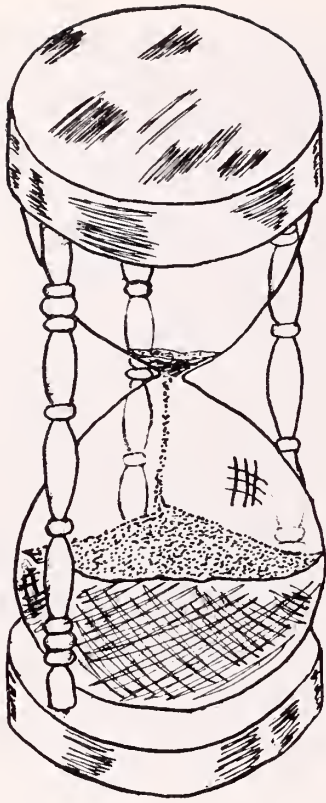

They are selected by the sponsors of their classes at the first of the school year, and practice diligently all during the football and basketball seasons.

Not only do they cheer at the games but they also participate in the Harvest Festival Parade and prepare a dinner for the Junior Varsity football players before the final game.

The J.V. cheerleaders were co-captained by Jane Pegram and Lucy Anne Crowder and were sponsored by Miss Virginia Abernathy.

Students Select Homecoming

Mr. Morris, principal, and Linda Montgomery ride atop convertible during Homecoming Festivities.

The highlight of the 1965-66 football season was the annual Homecoming Game, with friends and alumni invited back to the school.

At half-time of the Park View-Chatham game, Miss Linda Montgomery was crowned Homecoming Queen. Music was provided by the school band as the Homecoming Court was presented.

The Dragons gave alumni a special "welcome-back" by defeating the Chatham Cavaliers, 13-0.

And Yearbook Queens

Mr. Morris crowns Susan Hankley, "Miss Yearbook" as Brenda Perkins, Janice Chapman, Linda Montgomery, first runner-up, and Martha Kimball look on.

Each year the annual staff sponsors a "Miss Yearbook" contest to promote subscription sales. Girls are nominated by the annual staff and receive their votes from students purchasing annuals.

This year's winner, Susan Hankley, was crowned during the half-time of the Park View-Bluestone basketball game, by Mr. Lewis Morris, principal.

Miss Park View are Selected

The traditional joy, excitement, and tension of the girls competing was just as great as it had been in years past. As each girl was introduced, she displayed her warmest smile and loveliest gown. While everyone awaited the round-by-round elimination, anxiety rose among the contestants, as well as the audience.

Finally the long awaited moment came.

Birdena Miller, an eighth grader, was the newly chosen Junior Miss Park View; and senior Martha Blair Kimball was crowned Miss Park View of 1966. Although only one girl walked away with a crown, the happiness of each competing girl was expressed in her words and actions.

The lovely winners in the 1966 Junior Miss Park View Contest were Nancy Brown, first runner-up; Birdena Miller, Queen; and Mary Taylor Crowder, second runner-up.

Presents "Girl Crazy"

An excellent performance of this year's Senior Play, "Girl Crazy", was given by eighteen students from the senior class, directed by Mrs. C. W. Moseley and Mrs. F. L. Nanney, Jr.

The scene of the play is a ranch in Arizona; and the main characters are Danny, a spoiled New York City playboy, who has to live on a ranch for a whole year in order to gain his father's inheritance, and Molly who is postmistress of the small Arizona town, Custerville. The plot revolves around the city slicker who hates living in the dismal desert of the West; but with the appearance of a pretty girl, who is postmistress, things look a little brighter.

The original play has acquired much fame because it is so hilariously funny and the characters are so well drawn.

Katherine Moore fights to separate Sherwood Creedle and R. L. Bonney as the two quarrel over her.

The Senior Play cast practices diligently at their last rehearsal before the big night. The cast included Danny Clark, Tee Winn, John Clark, Brenda Wells, Sherwood Creedle, Katherine Moore, R. L. Bonney, Martha Kim-

Juniors Entertain Seniors

Couples enjoy the Prom as they dance to the music of the Continentals.

Once again as in past years, the Junior Class presented a Junior-Senior Prom. On May 13, 1966, the ordinary gym was transformed into a wonderful dream. This year students took a trip to "Paradise Isle". The dream lasted only a few short hours as the band, the Continental, played under shades of green crepe paper and palm trees. A crude grass hut and sandy shore were the two scenes on the island.

It was a wonderful night, and one that will never be forgotten.

The famed Continentals supply the music for the evening at "Paradise Isle."

With "Paradise Isle"

Prom Chairman, Mrs. Tucker, and her husband chat with Ann Legge as she gathers souvenirs for the night.

Couples return to dancing after enjoying delicious refreshments served by candlelight in the cafeteria.

Guests dance happily under the soft lights of the stars and glowing Japanese lanterns.

Outstanding Athletes

Coach Wise congratulates and presents certificates to Johnny Hightower, Charles Hubbard, and C. W. Gee upon their selection to the 1965 All-District Football team.

Along with the Green Dragons fine 1965 football season came several honors. Charles Hubbard, Johnny Hightower, and C. W. Gee were selected by the football coaches in Group II, District III to the All-American Football Squad. These Dragons, all three being Seniors, performed expertly the entire season.

Hubbard, a three-year letterman and one of the Park View team's co-captains, was also selected by his teammates as the most valuable player on the '65 squad.

Assistant principal, Bryant Lumpkin, and head football coach, Harold Wise, present Charles Hubbard with the Robert Sterling Montgomery Trophy bearing his name for his being selected by his teammates as the Dragon's Most Valuable Player.

Gain Recognition

All-District and All-Tournament Monty Rainey and Ashby Armistead boost Park View toward the top in basketball.

Carolyn Moody was selected to the All-District Girls basketball team. Carolyn, a two-year letterman, worked hard for her team this year, and shows great promises for next year.

Both the 1965-66 varsity girls and boys basketball teams were blessed by great skill. Dragon captain and three-year letterman Ashby Armistead performed like a "pro" for the Dragons. Armistead, a junior at Park View, was elected to both the All-District and All-Tournament teams.

Monty Rainey, a junior and two-year letterman, was the leading scorer for the Dragons. Rainey with a height disadvantage did not let that stand in his way for he was also elected to the All-District and All-Tournament teams. He broke the district scoring record with a 52 point performance against Prince Edward Academy.

Carolyn Moody was selected to the All-District Girls Team. Carolyn, a two-year letterman, will help lead the Dragonettes to another successful season next fall.

Park View was well represented at the various conventions held throughout Virginia for high school students.

In order to be selected as a delegate to one of these conventions, a student had to have a high academic rating, as well as being a person of strong character. He had to be approved by Lewis F. Morris, principal of Park View, and the sponsor of his various organization.

These delegates learned new ideas and methods that would help improve their particular club, and reported them to that organization. Through these conventions, the student life at Park View grows bigger and better each year.

C. C. Nuckols and James Poythress attended the S.C.A. Convention as delegates from P. V.

Time To

Buy

As the school serves the community through its educational facilities, so does the community serve the school. The real sponsors of the annual, financially are the merchants and store owners in surrounding communities.

From Mr. Morris and the annual staff, a special word of thanks should be given to all the business establishments which have ads in the 1966 LEAVES OF MEMORY. Without their co-operation this book could not have been published. THANK YOU!

Acknowledgements

We, the editors of THE LEAVES OF MEMORY, would like to express our sincere gratitude to everyone who has helped with the production of this annual.

Special thanks goes to our sponsor, Mrs. Gladys Wells, and her assistant, Mrs. Arlene Brooks, for their help and guidance that they have so willingly given us this year. We wish to thank our understanding principal, Mr. Morris, and the faculty for their patience in our disruption of school life.

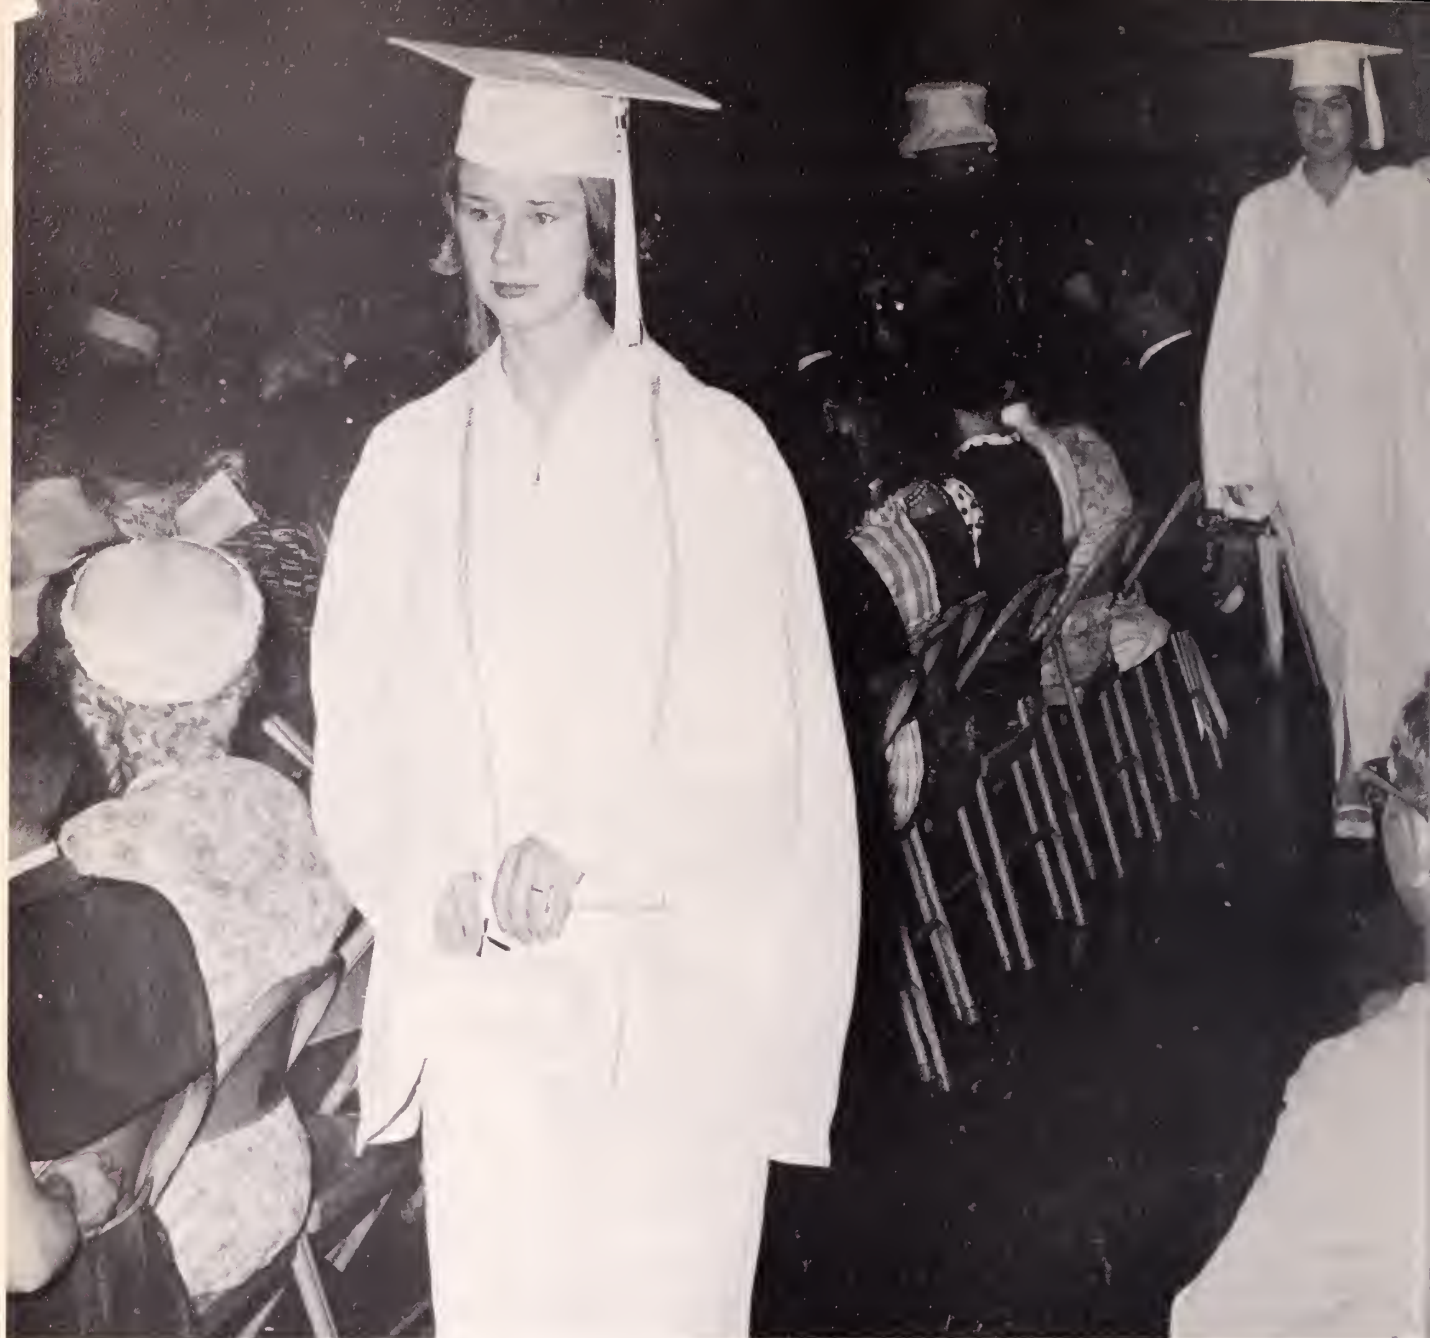

We thank Delmar Publishing Company and Mr. Max Ward for his advice and photography. We'd also like to thank Jimmy Butts, Mr. John Brandon, and Mr. Frank Nanney, Jr. for their photography.

We are grateful to the many clubs and businesses who have sponsored our annual.

Last, but not least, our thanks are expressed especially to the entire staff of the LEAVES OF MEMORY who have given unselfishly of their time and energy to make this book a reality.

We have tried to present for you the entire 1965-66 school year in this annual, an impossible task. It has been a quick year, one of fun and work; and we have enjoyed every minute of it.

Sincerely,
Charlotte and Janice

Time passes and so goes the 1965-66 year at Park View. Each student has gained knowledge, both mentally and physically. The students of the Class of '66 have reached a goal in their lives, and the classes below them are one step further in their goals. Some will go on to strive for bigger and better things in life, while others will return to seek a high school education.

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.
